

By the numbers

- Approximately 7.4 million adults in the United States have psoriasis.
- Psoriasis occurs in all age groups but the highest proportion of cases is between ages 45 and 65.
- Approximately 10-20% of people with psoriasis experience joint inflammation that produces symptoms of arthritis (known as psoriatic arthritis).
- In 2013, the total direct cost of treatment associated with psoriasis in the United States was estimated to be between $51.7 billion and $63.2 billion.

SOURCE: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention;
American Academy of Dermatology

